EDITOR'S CHAIR.

HOW THINGS LOOK FROM OUR STAND POINT.

The Opinion of The Editor and the Opinion of Others which we Can Endorse on the Various Topics of the Day.

Let our friends of the People's Party banish every idea of nominating a State ticket, but rally to the support of Elias Carr and elect him by 40,000 majority.

If Stevenson had been put at the head of the Democratic ticket we believe he would have carried North Carolina. But the influences that nominated Cleveland are opposed to the principles of Mr. Stevenson. Know how unpopular Mr. Cleveland was with the masses. Mr. S. was nominated to try to popularize the ticket.

The News and Observer says:

"The Kansas Democrats, in their State Convention, agreed to fuse with the People's party there and endorsed the electoral and State tickets put out by the new party."

Somebody ought to abuse those Democrats out there for not making a straight fool fight. They ought to prefer to show the courage of the bull yearling and go down making a glorious fight on the great economic Force bill, than to endorse the "wildest vagaries" of those impracticable Kansasans. Its shocking! Let's hear from Dr. Kingsbury.

The Pinkerton men are not officers of the law, and represent neither the civil nor the military authority. They were simply so many men hired for so much money to shoot down so many men. If there was no demand for such a body of hireling assassins they would disband. It is the monopolist and the plutocrat who hires them to shoot down the man who dares to defy oppression. If the Carnegie company desired to invite and provoke a bloody conflict with their former employees, they could not have adopted a course more surely calculated to bring about that result than by sending barges filled with Pinkerton men, with slung rifles and belts filled with cartridges, to Homestead.

The Alliance has been calling upon Congress for some time to investigate the Pinkerton gang. Will our gold-bug, monopoly-ridden Congress do it now?

Congress has been discussing the deplorable and fatal troubles at Homestead, Pennsylvania, and Cornegie's hired Pinkertons and the laborers in the iron works. We have read the proceedings closely, and it seems that there is not a single man in Congress from the great State of Pennsylvania to stand up for the laboring man and to see that at least the truth is told about the Homestead troubles, if no further justice can be done him. Every Congressman from the State is either boldly defending the tyrannous and heartless conduct of the monopoly king, Carnegie, or cowardly keeping his mouth shut. The laborers have had to look to Congressmen of other States, McMillan of Tennessee, Pefter of Kansas, and others to defend them. It really seems that the laboring man in Pennsylvania has been throwing away his vote, for Plutocracy only is represented in Congress.

From the present outlook we very much fear that the People's Party will put a State ticket in the field and possibly tickets in every county. Such action if taken would be greatly to be regretted, and should be prevented if possible. Whatever differences may exist among North Carolinians over questions of national policy, there should be none in the State where Anglo-Saxon rule and good government is the paramount issue. If the People's Party put out a State ticket, then the present State ticket headed by Elias Carr, which upon the whole is an admirable one, is almost sure to be defeated. It will be defeated by the Republicans if they put out a State ticket, it will be defeated by the People's Party ticket if the Republicans support the ticket. Now a word to those who have joined the People's Party: What is there to be gained for Reform by defeating the Democratic State ticket? Nothing, but much to lose, let the result be what it may. If you elect your ticket, you do it at the sufferance of the Republican party, and you are at their mercy now and in the future. If you are the cause of the Republican party capturing the State you have given a heavy blow to the cause of Reform and put the management of your State in unworthy and incapable hands. Let not those who want office more than they do Reform precipitate you into taking any such unwise action. If People's party candidates are run for the Legislature then the chances are that the Republicans and the Railroad influence will control the next Legislature. This would not only mean misrule, for two years if no more, but it would undo all the reforms gained by the last Legislature. The Reformers can control the next Legislature as easy as they did the last if they will stand together and not run a third ticket. The same applies to nearly every Congressional district in the State. In this district, the people have control of the convention, and can nominate a man who will stand by the people in Congress. We did it two years ago and can do it again. If three tickets are run in this district the chances are in favor of the Republicans being elected. THE CAUCASIAN believes in Democratic principles, will always advocate the doctrine, and believes in getting the reforms needed through the political organization known as the Democratic party as far as possible. Yet we do not believe in machine politics, and whenever a man is nominated who does not represent Democratic principles and who is at heart against the interest of the masses, we think that every voter should have the manhood to condemn him. This is Pure Democracy which floats on our banner at the mast head of this paper.

A MONOPOLY OF MONOPOLIES.

Fifteen iron and steel establishments joined in a combine with Carnegie. And this whole combine has taken the same action to cut wages. The companies are as follows: Carnegie, Phipps & Co., limited; Alleghany Bessemer Steel Co., and the Keystone Bridge Company at the Edgar Thomson Steel Works, Duquesne Steel Works, Homestead Steel Works, Lucy Furnaces, Keystone Bridge Works, Upper Union Mills, Lower Union Mills, Beaver Falls Mills, Scotia Ore Mines, Larimer Coke Works and Youghlogheny Coke Works. The company has a capital of $25,000,000, and will employ 40,000 men.

It is further said that about 400 other mills have adopted the Carnegie scale of wages, and that they all closed down Friday, throwing 150,000 out of employment.

Such is the tyranny and despotism of capital. If government can not control such unlicensed power and protect the weak, what is government for? Will Congress say that it is unconstitutional to do anything?

WHO IS A DEMOCRAT?

Who is a Democrat? and who shall be entitled to take part in primaries and conventions? are questions which were discussed by the Clinton Democratic Club at its last meeting, we were absent from town and could not be present, but understand that the decision reached was to make voting for Cleveland the test. That is that a man who declares that he is a Democrat, who declares his intentions to vote for the whole Democratic ticket from constable up, with the exception of Cleveland, should not be allowed to take part in a Democratic primary for county offices, for the Legislature, &c. This is very unwise. This is an effort to drive men, who are Democrats, from the party. If such a short-sighted policy is adopted the Dem. State Ex. Com. then the logical result will be that large numbers of Democrats will be drawn to the People's Party, a State ticket would certainly be put out, Elias Carr would be defeated, and the Democratic party would be a minority party in the future. This is not a threat, (for THE CAUCASIAN is for the Democratic State ticket,) but it is a statement of fact. There are thousands of men in North Carolina who will not vote for Cleveland who are better Democrats than many who are trying to proscribe them. Such a policy would not only be unwise, but it is illogical. A man who does not see fit to support Mr. Cleveland is entitled to take part in convention to nominate county or State officers, if he enters the convention in good faith. The State Ex. Com. should recognize this right, and by so doing we believe it can save North Carolina and the State ticket. This, above all others, is not a time for proscription and rash action, but tolerance and cool-headed wisdom is absolutely necessary. We believe chairman Simmons has these qualities. We believe his selection was a wise one, we believe he has the back-bone and the wisdom to take the position at this crisis that will save North Carolina.

WAR IN PENNSYLVANIA.

CARNEGIE'S WORKMEN BATTLE WITH PINKERTON'S MERCERARIES.

Twelve Men Killed and Forty Wounded.

Carnegie, the iron King, has an immense plant at Homestead, a surburban town of Pittsburg, Pa. He recently made a reduction of 30 per cent. in the wages of his employees.

The men stated that they would never submit to the proposed reduction, and announced their determination to resist any effort on the part of the Carnegies to start up their plants with non-union men. As both sides were determined, both proceeded to prepare for the contest, which culminated on last Thursday in such deeds of violence and bloodshed that were witnessed in the big hive of industry on the Monongahela. As some of the workmen at Homestead hung H. C. Frick, president of the company, in effigy, in retaliation the company ordered an immediate shut down of the big works two days before the time provided by the contract under which the men were working.

The employes at once proceeded to organize for the defensive and the company erected a high board fence around the entire works, giving them the appearance of an immense stockade, the sides being pierced with portholes. Yesterday the Carnegie Company announced their intention to proceed to get ready to make repairs and the officials asked the sheriff to appoint deputies to protect their property. The sheriff sent a small squad of men up to the works, but the strikers assembled in force and notified them to get out of town, as no disorder was intended and that no damage would be done to any property. They even offered to be sworn in as deputies and to give bonds for the faithful performance of their duties as conservators of the peace. When this offer was declined the advisory committee, which had been directing the action of the workmen, and which had held the turbulent spirits among the workmen in check, was immediately dissolved, and all the records of the committee were promptly destroyed.

The developements showed that the application made for assistance of the sheriff was merely for the purpose of covering what was intended to be a coup de main on the part of the Carnegie company inclandestinely introducing a body of Pinkerton detectives into the mill inclosure. The detectives had been rendezvoused some five or six miles below the city on the Ohio River, at which point two model steel-lined barges had been prepared for them.

The barges were towed up the river by a towboat, but long before the Pinkerton men reached Homestead thousands of strikers had gathered on the banks of the river, ready to give them a warm welcome. When the boats attempted to land, the workmen broke through the fence surrounding the mill, and intrenching themselves behind piles of steel billets, prepared to resist the landing of the detectives.

The detectives were armed with Winchester rifles, but at the point where the attempt to land was made there was a steep embankment and they were compelled to go in single file and were soon driven back to the boats by the steady fire from the shore.

Three hundred Pinkerton detectives attempted to land from boats at the steel works. They fired on the guard and about 100 shots were exchanged. Two strikers were shot. The Pinkertons were repulsed at the first attack. For two hours before the boats arrived five thousand or six thousand persons awaited their coming on the river banks. The shooting of the two men enraged the crowd, and they bore down the Pinkertons with resistless force, driving them back to the boats. About a dozen men were wounded, several of whom are likely to die. When the boats approached the landing, the first man who came forward to disembark advanced with a Winchester rifle, and when ready to step off he discharged his weapon.

This was the signal for a general fight. There was a rapid exchange of shots from both sides.

It was seen at a glance that the men on the boats were thoroughly armed, as the Winchesters were in plain view. Five thousand men, women and children stood upon the river bank watching the fight and cheering on the workmen in their efforts to prevent a landing by the Pinkertons. The first shot of the engagement came from the barge. It was aimed at a big Hungarian, who stood at the water's edge. The noise of the battle spread about the borough like wildfire and thousands of men, women, and children thronged to the river bank to witness the fight in progress. The Pinkerton men were determined to land, and they poured volley after volley into the ranks of the strikers, many of whom were stricken down by the bullets, some of them being fatally injured, and some others killed outright.

As the battle progressed the strikers took up a position behind a breastwork hastily constructed of steel rails and billets, and from this place of safe refuge were able to pick off the detectives as soon as they appeared on the deck of the boats.

The news of the riot reached Pittsburg as early as 6 o'clock in the morning, and thousands of mill hands, all of whom are now idle pending the conference on the scale, congregated in the streets, while

MR. GRADY WRITES A LETTER

Explaining His Position--He Opposes Ownership of Railroads and Fears the Force Bill.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
WASHINGTON, D. C.,
July 8, 1892.

MR. EDITOR: I enclose you a copy of a letter which explains itself. I do so because many persons seem anxious to know my position on matters political, and many of my colleagues urge me to consent to its publication. Yours very truly,

B. F. GRADY.

MR. GRADY'S LETTER.

COL. W. E. HILL, FAISON, N. C.

MY DEAR SIR:—I have just had a pleasant chat with your son, who stopped here on his way to New York, on political conditions in your section, and he advised me to write you my views on the questions now agitating the minds of our people. I have concluded to follow his advice, because I am certain that you feel as much anxiety as I do for our children and our State.

As to the general objects aimed at in the St. Louis platform, I have no doubt that you and I agree; but we may not be entirely as one as to the methods of attaining the objects. Take the ownership of railways, for example, and let us compare opinions. Of the 57 railways in North Carolina, 35 made reports to the State R. R. Commission, in which we find that the managers and employes (not including attorneys, physicians and others who depend directly or indirectly on the railways for their support) number 11,772; and if the 22 other roads had reported, the number would doubtless reach 12,000. Now if the Congress should purchase these railways, the appointment of these 12,000 able-bodied voters would be thrown into the hands of the President of the United States, with the usual consequence that this number would be largely augmented just before elections; and uniting with all the other beneficiaries of executive favor they would constitute a dangerous political force in the State. They would work a powerful influence in county and State conventions; and co-operate with the vast army of their co-beneficiaries in all the other States—some of which have many times more railway employes than North Carolina—they would dictate the renomination and re-election of their benefactor; and we should soon prefer a hereditary monarchy to the intolerable corruption of our election system.

The spectacle of 124 Federal officers, as delegates, and 2,000 or 3,000, as strikers, forcing on their party at Minneapolis the renomination of Mr. Harrison, ought to warn us against the enlargement of the executive patronage.

Those who undertake to fortify their advocacy of the transportation plank, cite the fact that some European governments own and operate the railways in their dominions, and that the system works well. They forget, however, that in those countries there is no quadrennial election of the King or Emperor, inviting fierce and violent struggles for the retention of lucrative places.

The consequences follwing from government ownership of railways seem to have alarmed others as well as myself. The Progressive Farmer of June 28, advised the Omaha convention to "adopt the first two planks—finance and land—and leave out the transportation plank; and the Omaha convention, itself, in its third plank says: * * * "Should the government enter upon the work of owning and managing any or all railroads we should favor an amendment to the Constitution by which all persons engaged in the government service shall be placed under civil service regulations of the most rigid character so as to prevent the increase of the power of the national administration by the use of such additional government employees."

Now consider this dilemma: Many county Alliances, sub-Alliances and district conventions have pledged themselves to vote for no man who does not accept the St. Louis platform and every part of it, and the candidate for President nominated by the People'sParty is required to accept one of its most important planks with a proviso, while the Organ of the party in North Carolina advises that that plank should be dropped altogether. Now how can these people vote for Weaver?

The Omaha convention took substantially the position which I have maintained all the time. Amend the Constitution and have all Federal officers and employees elected by the people or selected by competitive examination—the members of the cabinet, the judges, &c., &c., &c., down to the lowest paid laborer. Do this, and the way will be open for entering upon such reforms as the menace of Executive patronage deters us from now. Then will have passed away the cause of bitter dissensions among the people.

I need not tell you that my warmest sympathy are with the unprotected and despised masses as against the protected and favored classes, but in seeking remedies I must be governed by my conscience and my best judgment. And if I cannot get all I want I will take the best I can get. The Federal despotism controled by the plutocrats and their beneficiaries and henchmen, reenforced by all the monarchists in the country, must be checked in its mad career if civil liberty is to be preserved—or, rather, re-established—for our children. In order, however, to accomplish anything for themselves our people, in my judgment, must stand shoulder to shoulder. In their anger—justifiable as it is—they must learn to experience patience and tolerance, and maintain a prudent regard for the consequences of their actions. Supposing that, fail-

WHERE HE STANDS.

EXTRACTS FROM EX-PRESIDENT CARR'S ANNUAL ADDRESSES TO THE STATE ALLIANCE.

How They Interpret the Generalities, Enlarge the Meaning of the Platform Adopted at the Recent State Convention.

In the last issue of THE CAUCASIAN we said that the man nominated and the views held by him meant more always than the wording of the platform he stood on, and that therefore the nomination of Hon Elias Carr for Governor meant more for the cause of reform than the strongest platform could if the nominee were opposed to "equal rights to all and special privileges to none," We have frequently asked in what way the platform was interpreted and enlarged by the nomination of Mr. Carr. We answer these questions by quoting from his two annual addresses to the North Carolina Farmers' State Alliance. From his address delivered at the fourth annual meeting, which convened at Asheville, we make the following extracts:

Perhaps the most important meeting ever held in this country has been the assembling of the farmer and labor organizations in St. Louis in December last (1889) the necessity for which was foreshadowed by that eminent statesman and jurist, the late Judge David Davis, when he said, as long ago as 1866; "The rapid growth of the corporate power and the malign influence which it exerts by combination on the National and State legislatures is well grounded cause of alarm. A struggle is pending in the near future between the overgrown power, with its vast ramifications all over the Union, and a hard grip on much of the political machinery on the one hand, and the people in an unorganized condition on the other, for the control of the government. It will be watched by every patriot with intense anxiety." Never more prophetic words fell from the lips of man! The people, though slow to admit it, had at last been convinced, and three millions of people sent their representatives there to form an alliance against this monstrous iniquity. The unanimity with which the demands set forth by that body were adopted, and the universal endorsement by all the States and Territories after mature deliberation and discussion, should, and I belive, will convince our legislators of our honesty of purpose and determination to accomplish our ends. This meeting, national in character as in name, was a magnificent success in obliterating the old lines of sectionalism—a matter devoutly to be wished, and of first importance in securing the necessary national legislation.

* * * * * *

What means these labor organizations? This: That the people see by combination alone can they live. Under a pure system of government forty years ago these organizations were unknown, and there was necessity for them, but to day how different! Every branch of trade has been compelled to organise to save itself from absolute annihilation, and is to be wondered at when we become to learn that the present iniquitous tariff laws, the passage of which was purchased by a few thousand rich manufacturers, have robbed the people and put into the pockets of these same manufacturers no less than nine millions of dollars. Hence it is, that at our city of Washington the protest of a millionaire will override the petitions of millions of working men.

* * * * * *

The acts of Congress in aid of agriculture for the last twenty-five years have been few indeed, compared with those of our rich manufacturers, and the tariff is so manipulated that they (the few thousand) reap the entire benefits. We all know but too well the result of this reign of selfish greed. The small land owners are being pushed to the wall, the larger ones are no longer able to make both ends meet; farms in the North, South, East and West and especially the West, that twenty-five years ago, during the period of the greatest inflation, paid a fair percentage on a valuation of $20 to $40, are now being foreclosed on mortgages for half that amount, and the former owners seeking new fields of employment for a livelihood.

It is a sad commentary on humanity, but nevertheless true, that with an unequal distribution of wealth there is an unequal distribution of social power. The influence of the middle class—the man of moderate means—is no longer felt in the legislative halls of the Capitol; he is being swept away. Wealth is rapidly concentrating, and out of the consequent corruption but two classes are forming—the lordly rich and the beggarly poor. While free to admit that the iniquitous protective tariff has brought about the present depressed state of agriculture by stripping the poor of three fourths of their natural savings and concentrating a majority of the wealth of the country in the hands of infinitesimally small part of the people, composed of manufacturers, trusts, pools and combines, a repeal alone of this unjust measure would not relieve the present distress. It would not lift a single mortgage. The one thing needful in the present financial condition of the people, is a debt-paying system of finance, in comparison with which all other questions sink into utter insignificance.

* * * * * * *

I have dwelt longer upon national affairs, believing that there, in the Capitol at Washington, have originated the farmers' woes, and from that source alone can come the remedy. Let us continue to insist upon our national Congress giving us this much needed relief. History teaches that the wills with which the rich bind the poor can be broken only by fire, sword or bloody revolution. But we have a better method of overturning fraud and corruption in high places. We have free speech and free ballot, and when the wisdom of the acts of the national meeting, like leven, to begin work upon the masses of the people, then, and not till then, shall we have a peaceful and happy solution of all our troubles.

EXTRACTS FROM ADDRESS AT MOREHEAD, 1891.

Officers and Delegates of the North Carolina Farmers' Alliance:

Since last addressing you, as President of the State Alliance, it has been my great pleasure to watch the healthy growth of our Order, and the rapid developement of the principles we have inculcated.

* * * * * * *

The unprecedented political upheval of last November was the natural outcome of the doctrines taught by the Alliance, and despite the protests of our enemies, we can take unto ourselves the credit of that more than glorious onslaught. Truly, it was a great work; and well may we feel honored, since it was a most salutary lesson to the greed of capital, the rottenness of government and the ravings of political demagogues. But, though the future seems bright, there is much yet to be done. Indeed, when I view the dangers which even at the present time surround us, I think I may be pardoned for saying that the work seems scarcely yet begun. We are assailed on every hand by demagogues, chiefly those in office, whose sole object is to perpetuate their power, and it matters little by what means they effect their purpose. Some times we see them masquerading as friends of the farmer, but in reality employed by soulless corporations to sow the seeds of discontent among us; and sometimes they are hirelings of the great trunk lines, which, like a gigantic octopus, are slowly but surely absorbing and paralizing what little blood and energy is now left unto us.

We have nothing with which to fight this redoubtable combination save honest hearts, willing hands and that spirit of independence which has ever characterized the husbandman from the time of Cincinnatus even unto our own. I think, then, I do not miss the mark when I say that, as a class, we are patient and willing, much abused and never murmuring, yet when we are aroused, as I now trust you all are, the act bears more than ordinary significance. But what makes this our last resort, if our energies be not united, if we be not a unit in our actions? Shall we profit by the experience of the past? The road to defeat, the road to victory lie equally plain before you. The choice is of vital importance—something must be done. It is no longer a matter of condition—relief must come. Our condition is such that delay would be fatal among us, and the conscious opinion is that relief must come through the legitimate and peaceful channels of legislation. We have held up to the scorn and contempt of honest men the existence of trusts, combines and corporations; but of what benefit has this exposure been to us? The work of robbery still goes on. Why is this? Why have we accomplished so little? The answer is an open secret—it is because the vast majority of the producing class are yet untaught, uneducated, deaf to the appeals of reason and experience, callous to the cry of those who preach the importance of thorough organization. Is it not strange that so many of our fellowmen utterly ignore the very first law—the law of self-preservation—and the fact that a complete and thorough organization is the only safe means whereby we can be assured of our rights? On every hand we hear boasts of our great progress and our civilization, but since good government, "the government of the people, for the people and by the people," the secret of all happiness has not kept pace with the other sciences, we see great reasons for asserting that this boasted civilization is not shared in by the workingman who, here, as the world over, is the pith, the marrow, the backbone of the country. And how is he to share therein, handicapped as he is in the race of life, in the severe struggle for existence? Handicapped by his own ignorance, which he so unfortunately evinces when he asserts his opposition to that bill, which now, in anything but a spirit of fairness, is being discussed throughout the country—I mean, of course, the Sub-Treasury—and touching this I do not think it amiss to say we are not wedded to the particular phraseology which now characterizes the bill. We do not pray for the passage of this bill unaltered and undiscussed, for that would deprive us of the opinions and experiences of others; but we are attached, yea, even committed, to the principles involved, and are convinced that only after a full and free discussion can we arrive at a satisfactory solution of the subject. There is precedent sufficient of governments loaning money to the citizen with and without security, and thus is established the power to loan, which is indeed all sufficient. The kind of security does not enter into the case—the government can select what it considers ample and best calculated to relieve the wants of the people. It is unaccountable; indeed, I cannot understand how a man dependent upon the sweat of his brow for his

THE PLUTOCRAT'S PRAYER

At the Altar of the "Almighty Dollar."

The plutocrats are now praying for the first time. It is said that upon their application, that one of their hustling writers who has been employed to furnish the people with false news and lying figures, has prepared the following prayer, which the plutocrats now all use. It is as follows:

"O, Almighty Dollar! our acknowledged governor, preserver, and benefactor, we desire to approach thee, on this and every other occasion, with that reverence which is due superior excellence, and that regard which should ever be cherished for exalted greatness.

Almighty Dollar! without thee in the world we can do nothing, but with thee we can do all things. When sickness lays its palsying hand upon us thou canst provide for us the tenderest of nurses, the most skillful physicians; and when the last struggle of mortality is over, and we are being borne to the resting-place of the dead, thou canst provide a band of music and a military escort to accompany us thither, and last, but not least erect a monument over our graves, with a lying epitaph to perpetuate our memories.

And while here in the midst of misfortunes and temptations of life, and the Farmers' Alliance and trades unions, we perhaps are accused of crime and brought before magistrates; thou, Almighty Dollar, canst secure to us a feed lawyer, a bribed judge, and a packed jury; and we go scot free.

Be with us, we pray thee, in all thy decimal parts, for we feel that thou art the one altogether lovely and cheapest among ten thousands.

We feel there is no true condition in life where thy potent and powerful charms are not felt. In thy absence how gloomy is the household and how desolace the hearthstone; but when thou, Almighty Dollar, art with us, how gleefully the beefsteak sings on the grid-iron; how genial the warmth of the Anthracite coal or Hickory wood diffuses throughout the apartments, and what an exuberance of joy continues to swell every bosom!

Thou art the joy of our youth and the solace of old age. Thou canst adorn the Gentleman and thou feedest the Jackass. Thou art the favorite of the Philosopher and the idol of the Lunkhead. Where an election is to be carried, O, Almighty Dollar! thou art the most potent argument of Politicians and Demagogues, and the umpire that decides the contest.

Almighty Dollar! thou art worshipped the world over. Thou hast no hypocrites in thy Temples or false hearts at thy Altars. Kings and courtiers bow down before thee, and all nations adore.

Thou art loved by the civilized and savage alike with unfeigned and unfaltering affections.

O, Almighty Dollar! in the acquirement and defense of Human Liberty thou hast bound continents together by the Telegraph cables, and made the varied products of our country available to all by a perfect net of Railroads. The forest has been prostrated and the Desert made to bloom as the rose.

We continue to regard thee as the hand-maid of religion, the twin Sister of Charity. When the light of thy shining countenance breaks through the gloom of famine-stricken Ireland, the shamrock wears a greener hue and the harp resounds in loftier strains, while weeping mothers and starving children rise above their wails of woe, as their hearts and their heels resound to the thrilling strains of "St. Patrick's Day in the Morning."

O, Almighty Dollar! be with us we beseech thee, during this foolish unrest of the people, our slaves, attended by an inexpressible number of thy ministering angels, made in thine own image, even though they be but Silver Quarters, whose gladdening light shall illumine the vale of pennry and want with heavenly radiance, which shall cause the wakened soul to break forth in acclamations of joy.

Almighty Dollar! thou art the awakener of our energies, the guide of our foot-steps and the object of our being. Guided by the silver light, we finally hope to reach the Golden Gate triumphantly, enter while angel hands harmoniously sweep their golden harps, and we, on the golden streets, in the highest exhilaration of feeling, and with jubilant emotions, far away from the Farmers' Alliance and the pesky trades unions championed so ably by the insane Reform papers, we strike the Highland fling and dance forevermore.

Almighty Dollar! thy shining face
Bespeaks thy wondrous power;
In my pockets make thy resting place,
I need thee every hour!

Permit us to possess thee in abundance and with all thy varied excellencies, and save us from these working people, is our constant and unwavering Prayer, Amen!

In another column will be found an open letter from Hon. B. F. Grady to explain his position. He discusses the railroad question and the Force bill.

The Louisiana State Legislature has passed a resolution asking the Louisiana Senators and Representatives in Congress to urge an amendment to the constitution providing for the election of United Senators by direct vote of the people.

To-day tin plates, by a combination of manufactures, has been put up to $5.25 a box, when, before the McKinley bill, they sold for $3.75. The poor of the land use tin plates, they are the dishes of the laboring class. See?

Hon. Chas. F. Crisp, Speaker of the House of Representatives, has been renominated for Congress by the Democrats of his District, and instructed to support the Stewart free coinage bill, which passed the Senate a few days since.

We have been asked several times why we did not have something to say about the nominees for President. Before the election in November THE CAUCASIAN will have ventilated and discussed them all to the complete satisfaction or discomforture of all sides.

The Richmond Dispatch says that General James G. Field, the nominee of the People's party for Vice-President of the United States, is pretty generally known in Virginia. He was elected Attorney-General of the State to succeed Mr. Daniel, and served one term in that office. He was a Mahone sympathizer.

The failures for the past three years under Harrison and McKinley rule have been 34,886; and for the proceeding three years were 30,161. This increase in failures has taken place, under a system which promised us better things, and under the operations of a bill which was to make everybody rich by taxation.

The Democratic Convention of the 3rd Cong. District will meet in this town on next Wednesday July 20th. Clinton has a wide reputation for her hospitality. She will fully sustain her enviable reputation on this occasion. We extend a full welcome and the freedom of the town to the delegates on that occasion.

The New York Sun says:

"Southern democrats in Congress are thoroughly convinced that the South will be more than ever solid this year, owing to the threatened danger of a Force bill. For this reason they think all danger of the third party capturing any Southern State is passed."

Does the Sun mean to admit that if the Force bill scare-crow had not been brought into the campaign, but that the fight had been made on economic questions that the Third Party would have been the gainer thereby? This is a heavy slap at the Democratic party, and a very high compliment to the measures advocated by the People's Party.

If voting for Cleveland is made a test with the voter, then he will make it a test with the candidate. If the candidate can stand this the voter can.

The editor of this paper is opposed to paying Union Soldiers the difference between greenbacks and gold. The Alliance in this State is opposed to it. The last State Convention should have adopted a plank to that effect. This whole pension business is an outrage, and why Southern Congressmen have not protested more against it is a mystery to us. Every Congressmen should be pledged against the pension business.

The following from the life of Senator John Sherman furnishes interesting food for thought:

"Thirty years ago Senator Sherman, of Ohio, was nominated for Congress.

"He was so poor that he had to mortgage his home to get funds to carry on his campaign. At $5,000 a year, his salary for thirty years would amount to only $150,000; but his check is good for several millions any where. Now it takes a good deal of economy to raise, educate, feed and clothe a family for thirty years on $150,000 and save several million dollars out of it. 'Honest John' says, 'You can't legislate money into a man's pocket.' Sherman is not the only poor fellow who has become rich in this way."

OUR BELSHAZZER.

In a speech at Charlotte an Ex. Governor of one of the States said of President Harrison:

"There is Harrison—an elder in the Presbyterian church who never serves a dinner without five glasses at each plate—four more than Belshazzer had at his feast. Let Christian men cast their votes solid for a man who will rid the White House of every drop of intoxicating liquors. [Applause.]"

A PROTEST AGAINST CLEVELAND.

The account of the mass meeting held in the Courthouse on Monday of last week was not properly published, we are told by some who participated in the meeting. It was not a People's party meeting, but a protest by Democrats against Grover Cleveland's nomination. And the only object of said meeting, as understood by those present, we are told was to take steps to nominate an Elector who would not vote for Cleveland in the Electoral College. The speakers all expressed themselves as satisfied with the Democratic State ticket. The men participating are among the best Democrats in this county.

DR. KINGSBURY SUGGESTS

That the Democrats Join with the "Black and Tan Party" to Defeat Reform.

[From Wilmington Messenger, June 8th.]

It may come to pass yet that the Democrats and Republicans may have to get together to save the country from the rule and ruin party of impracticable. It may yet become a necessity that the two old parties shall lock shields in opposition to financial cranks and revolutionists who seem bent on destroying the Republic. When the Government is threatened to be transformed into a regular huge pawn-broker's shop and into a Strong Government despotism it is high time for the PATRIOTS of the country to combine for its salvation."

SENATOR VANCE.

We had the pleasure of seeing Senator Z. B. Vance at the Hammocks a few days since. He is looking much better than we expected to see him. He is suffering with rheumatism and a complication of other troubles, but tells us that he has steadily improved at the Ham mocks. Mrs. Vance, his charming and talented wife, is with him, and is much encouraged with his improvement. The paralysis in the face is scarcely noticeable. The Senator, though often suffering acutely, is bright and hopeful. He entertains his numerous callers and friends with his matchless wit and humor, as has always been his want when well. He keeps thoroughly posted and shows a new interest in everything that is going on, especially in the political arena. The State is greatly the loser by not having his active services at the present juncture.

WHERE DOES THE SOUTH COME IN?

In speaking of the curiosities of the Cabinet of President Harrison, the Baltimore Sun observes that the succession of Mr. John W. Foster, of Indiana, to the Secretaryship of State brings about the rare and perhaps unprecedented occurrence of two members of the cabinet being of the same name. The other member referred to is, of course, Mr. Charles Foster, of Ohio, who succeeded Mr. William Windom as Secretary of the Treasury. An important geographical consideration also follows. The President, Secretary of State, Secretary of the Treasury, Secretary of the Interior, Secretary of Agriculture and the Attorney-General of the United States are all from the Central Western States, while the Vice-President and Secretary of the Navy are from New York, the Secretary of War from West Virginia, and the Postmaster-General from Pennsylvania.

A FEW FACTS ABOUT THE PENNSLYVANIA LABOR TRAGEDY.

The capital stock of Mr. Carnegie's steel plant is estimated at $25,000,000. It is said that a clear profit of $5,000,000 was realized last year. This is about 20 per cent. interest. It was decided, however, by the Carnegie company that 20 per cent. was not enough interest, and that the price of labor must be reduced. In other words the thirty-five hundred laborers employed must pay out of their wages the increased interest desired. These laborers were informed that their wages must be reduced. They protested. The doors were closed in their faces and they were left outside to starve, while Mr. Carnegie's agents were hunting for cheaper laborers to take their places. While this hunt was going on a horde of Pinkerton hessians were sent for to overawe the workingmen who had refused to accept starving wages. Not being able to overawe them these Pinkerton janizaries being shooting them down in the presence of their wives and children while, says the Atlanta Journal:

"Baron Carnegie was luxuriating in his Scotch castle, his 'protected' workingmen were standing face to face with starvation and the Winchester rifles of a gang of mercenaries."—State Chronicle.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE EX. COM.

The Democratic State Executive Committee met in Raleigh July 6th. There was a large attendance. All candidates for State officers were present except one. A chairman for the committee was elected. Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith was re-elected but declined to serve. Ex-Congressman F. M. Simmons, of Newbern, was then elected and accepted the position. Ex-Governor Jarvis' name was not mentioned in connection with the position as he had stated that he would not accept it but proposed to do active campaign work.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

An accident of uncommon occurrence and peculiar nature happened on the W. C. & A. Rail Road last Thursday night and came near involving serious loss of life.

A shifting engine was standing in the yard of the Atlantic Coast Line, in Wilmington, waiting for the incoming passenger train from the South. The engineer and fireman were both outside the cab, when by some means the throttle was opened, and the engine went tearing up the road in a wild runaway. About four miles from Wilmington it met the passenger train which was standing on the main track awaiting orders to cross the draw on North East River. The wild engine was running backward and plunged into the standing engine and was thrown from the track and telescoped by the plow of the latter. The colored wood passer jumped from the passenger train and was killed by striking his head against some wooden object. No one else was seriously hurt and the passenger train reached Wilmington after a short delay.

river bank watching the fight and cheering on the workmen in their efforts to prevent a landing by the Pinkertons. The first shot of the engagement came from the barge. It was aimed at a big Hungarian, who stood at the water's edge.

When it was found that little impression could be made by the cannon on the boats, an effort was made to fire the barges and thus compel the detectives to leave the vessel.

The mills were in possession of the strikers for three days, and Gov. Pattison was repeatedly called upon for State troops, but wisely refused to order them out.

The mill men held a meeting and decided to turn over the mills to the company, which they have done. As it was, twelve men were killed, and many seriously wounded, about an equal number on each side, and the riot goes down in history as one of the most terrible that ever occurred in this country.

A BILL HE INTRODUCED.

[Communicated.]

Mr. Editor—In the interest of truth please give space to the following. If these are not the facts let us have them:

"The platform adopted at Omaha is almost the same as that adopted at St. Louis, much of it in the same words. The most notable difference is the omission of the demand to pay the Union soldiers. But this was probably omitted because the nomination of Gen. Weaver was itself an endorsement of that demand, he having three times introduced into Congress a bill to pay the Union soldiers the difference between the currency in which they were paid and its value in gold. Yes, Gen. Weaver introduced into the Forty-sixth, the Forty-ninth and the Fiftieth Congress the following bill:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled. That there shall be paid to each private soldier, non-commissioned officer, sailor, teamster, or musician regularly mustered into the service of the United States during the late war for the suppression of the rebellion, or to his or their legal representatives in case of death, as soon as his or their claim shall be examined and audited by the second auditor of the treasury, the sum found due him or them, the amount thereof to be ascertained as follows: The second auditor shall ascertain the amount of currency paid said soldier or sailor at each date of payment during his term of office, and shall ascertain the gold value of said currency payment at the time, by reference to the quotations of gold, as compared with the currency in which said soldier or sailor was paid, at the city of New York at that date, and said soldier, sailor or his legal representatives shall be allowed and paid the difference in value between the currency which he received and the standard gold of the United States in which it should have been paid."

"The man nominated and the views held by him mean more always than the wording of the platform."—Caucasian.

Does the nomination of Weaver make the third party platform broader? X.

[Mr. Carr did not draw the platform adopted at Raleigh. So the platform within did not fully represent his position. Mr. Weaver did draw the platform at Omaha, so it is fair to judge his position by it. The cases are not parallel. We will discuss this matter fuller hereafter.—ED. CAUCASIAN.]

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

The following platform was unanimously and enthusiastically adopted:

The platform reads as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the Democracy of North Carolina reaffirm the principles of the Democratic party, both State and National, and particularly favor the free coinage of silver and an increase of the currency, and the repeal of the internal revenue system. And we denounce the McKinley tariff bill as unjust to the consumers of the country, and leading to the formation of trusts, combines and monopolies which have oppressed the people; and especially do we denounce the unnecessary and burdensome increase in the tax on cotton ties and on tin, so largely used by the poorer portion of the people. We likewise denounce the iniquitous Force bill, which is not yet abandoned by the Republican party, but is being urged as a measure to be adopted as soon as they regain control of the House of Representatives, the purpose and effect of which measure will be to establish a second period of reconstruction in the Southern States, to subvert the liberties of our people and to inflame a new race antagonism and sectional animosities.

2. That we demand financial reform, and the enactment of laws that will remove the burdens of the people relative to the existing agricultural depression, and do full and ample justice to the farmers and laborers of our country.

3. That we demand the abolition of national banks, and the substitution of legal tender Treasury notes in lieu of national bank notes, issued in sufficient volume to do the business of the country on a cash system, regulating the amount needed on a per capita basis as the business interests of the country expand, and that all money issued by the government shall be legal tender in payment of all debts, both public and private.

4. That we demand that Congress shall pass such laws as shall effectually prevent the dealing in futures of all agricultural and mechanical productions; providing such stringent system of procedure in trials as shall secure most perfect compliance with the law.

5. That we demand the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

6. That we demand the passage of laws prohibiting the alien ownership of land, and that Congress take early steps to devise some plan to obtain all lands now owned by alien and foreign syndicates; and that all lands now held by railroads and other corporations, in excess of such as is actually used and needed by them, be reclaimed by the government and held for actual settlers only.

7. Believing in the doctrine of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none," we demand that taxation, National or State, shall not be used to build up one interest or class at the expense of another. We believe that the money of the country should be kept as much as possible in the hands of the people, and hence we demand that all revenue, National, State or county, shall be limited to the necessary expenses of the government economically and honestly administered.

8. That Congress issue a sufficient amount of fractional paper currency to facilitate the exchange through the medium of the United States mail.

9. That the General Assembly pass such laws as will make the public school system more effective that the blessings of education may be extended to all the people of the State alike.

Resolved, That we favor a graduated tax on incomes.

NATIONAL DEMANDS OF THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE AND INDUSTRIAL UNION OF AMERICA, AS ADOPTED AT ST. LOUIS IN 1889.

1. That we demand the abolition of National banks, and the substitution of legal tender Treasury notes in lieu of National Bank notes, issued in sufficient volume to do the business of the country on a cash system; regulating the amount needed on a per capita basis as the business interests of the country expands, and that all money issued by the government shall be legal tender in payment of all debts, both public and private.

2. That we demand that Congress shall pass such laws as shall effectually prevent the dealing in futures of all agricultural and mechanical productions; preserving a stringent system of procedure in trials as shall secure the prompt conviction, and imposing such penalties as shall secure the most perfect compliance with the law.

3. That we demand the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

4. That we demand the passage of laws prohibiting the alien ownership of land, and that Congress take early steps to devise some plan to obtain all lands now owned by aliens and foreign syndicates; and that all lands now held by railroads and other corporations, in excess of such as is actually used and needed by them, be reclaimed by the government and held for actual settlers only.

5. Believing in the doctrine of "equal rights to all and special privileges to none," we demand that taxation, National or State, shall not be used to build up one interest or class at the expense of another. We believe that the money of the country should be kept as much as possible in the hands of the people, and hence we demand that all revenue, National, State or County, shall be limited to the necessary expenses of the government economically and honestly administered.

6. That Congress issue a sufficient amount of fractional paper currency to facilitate exchange through the medium of the United States mail

7. We demand that the means of communication and transportation shall be owned by and operated in the interest of the people, as is the United States postal system.

daily bread can oppose the principles involved in this plan. The very fact of the intense hatred which the monopolist and their hirelings throughout the country bear not only the bill, but its authors, should convince not only the laboring man that its passage would produce not only a radical change, but that that change would most probably operate to his benefit, since it is so bitterly opposed by the ultra-moneyed classes.

* * * * * * *

The ballot with which this man is armed is a terrible engine of destruction as well as the only hope which, at the present time, makes life worth living. In the hands of the ignorant, the lives of the and liberties of the citizens are endangered; but in the hands of the enlightened, it is the destroyer of oligarchy, the preserver and bulwark of our freedom, and the nation's peace and happiness. Until a larger element in a republic is honest and enlightened, it is a republic only in name. Men who have no honor to uphold, are entrusted with the power and responsibilities of the most dignified offices. They have nothing to recommend them save their worldly possessions. These they have wrung from the producers, and these do they lavishly expend in the passage of laws which still further arm them with the power of binding the laborer hand and foot. Matters grow from bad to worse, and at last we wake to realize that the monster we have created is oligarchy! oligarchy in its most terrible form!

Our law-makers for years past have been losing sight of the main point, which is, that a republic is a form of government wherein the laws are made looking to the welfare of a majority of its citizens. If this be true, there is one government inaptly called a republic.

* * * * * * *

Since the very foundation of society it has been the province of the bread-eaters to solve the political proolems of the day. It seems, however, that they are now powerless in the face of the complications growing out of their inefficiency. That prerogative now falls to you, the bread-winners, in whose tact, judgment and moderation I have the most implicit confidence.

In the light of the above sentiments the nomination of Mr. Carr interprets the platform of the State Convention. (1.) By making the tariff plank more specific. (2.) By demanding present relief through the Sub-Treasury PLAN, and by means of the Sub-Treasury BILL. (3.) By adding a transportation plank, demanding government control and ownership, if necessary to control.

Holding these views, certainly every Allianceman can and should vote for him.

ing to do these things, the People's Party nominate nine candidates for Congress in North Carolina, and the "Straight" Democrats do the same thing, there would be danger of having in the 53rd Congress nine Republicans from Carolina to vote with the tyrants and plutocrats, and if other Southern States were equally unwise! Mr. Read might carry out his threat made before the American Club in Pittsburg two years ago: "It seems to me that the only wise course is to take into Federal hands the election of President and Representatives in Congress. Let us cut loose from State elections, do our own registration, our own counting and our own certification." Mr. Harrison urged this course in one of his messages, and the Minneapolis platform reaches the demands. The result of our dissensions might be that we should be bound hand and foot by a tyrannical plutocracy with no power to rescue ourselves.

Some people are disposed to poohpooh the Free Bill, but they have not correctly interpreted the signs of the times. Just as monopolist, Carnegie's man, Frick brought in a band of armed mercenaries to compel submission of his discontented laborers, so will, what his kingdom calls the "money devil," urged by fear as well as desperation, resort to any effectual means of depriving the people of any voice in legislatures.

These, my dear Colonel, are the views expressed to your son. I have given them to you at his request and I beg you, if you can see things as I see them to exert your influence for harmony among the people and against hasty and perhaps dangerous conduct.

Trusting that the God of our fathers may guide us in the path of safety, I am truly your friend,

YOUR EYES—DR. HARMON.

Dr. D. S. Harmon, the Rusian Opthatmic Optician and Inventor, has opened a permanent office in Wilmington. He has rooms Nos. 2 and 4 in the Allen Building elegantly fitted up, where he has a number of callers daily. In addition to the local work in Wilmington, persons from all over this State and from South Carolina who have trouble with their eyes, are going constantly to Wilmington to consult him, have their eyes examined by his original method and glasses fitted. When Dr. Harmon was located in Clinton several months since, he did a great deal of work for persons in Sampson and adjoining counties. They have all been greatly pleased with his work. He deals squarely and honestly with every one, so all who know him have learned to trust him. He has had several orders from Sampson since locating in Wilmington. By his efficiency and fair dealing he has been a real benefactor to those who have eye troubles, and at the same time he is adding to hi r eputation and profit.

LOCAL ITEMS:

—Subscribe to THE CAUCASIAN. Only $1,00 per year.

—Rev. J. M. Ashby closed his series of meetings at the Methodist church last Monday night.

—The Democratic Convention of the Third Congressional District will meet in Clinton, Wednesday, July 20th.

—The County Alliance meets here today at 11 o'clock. It was an oversight that attention was not called to this meeting in last issue.

—The Commissioners are in session this week. In addition to settling with the sheriff and the regular routine business, they are revising the jury list. It has not been revised in about six years.

—The Young people of Clinton enjoyed a delightful "hay ride" on Monday evening. Three wagons full of them went out to the home of Maj. W. N. Patterson, and spent the evening very pleasantly.

—Maj. W. A. Johnson has a pointed Mr. R. W. Gray, of Charlotte, Sergeant Major of the Second Battalion of the Second Regiment. We have no doubt the appointment is an excellent and deserved one.

—Those wishing to pay their subscriptions may do so in corn and meat at the market prices. We make this offer to help those who wish to pay for their paper, and to give them no excuse for not paying.

—We learn that there is a move on foot to organize a bank in Clinton at an early day. Our business men are greatly inconvenienced by the want of banking facilities and will gladly encourage in every way they can the establishment of a bank. We trust the enterprise will soon be matured.

—We extend our sympathy to our townsman, Mr. Sandy Peterson, and the other members of the family, in the death of their mother, Mrs. Peterson, at her home, several miles from Clinton, last week. She was a general favorite with all who knew her, a woman of kind heart, and lived a consistent christian life.

—Owing to the closing of the saloons of Clinton sometime ago, it began to appear that the Congressional candidates would have to bring their lecturing water from abread on the 20th. But that need not be done now. The commissioners have issued license for its dispensation and candidates may bear this in mind.

—The liberty of our town and surburban hogs, goats and cows, is a thing of the past. The decree of our city fathers against the running at large of stock upon the streets has come into effect, and any forlorn strays found violating this ordinance can be found afterward in the city pound. Their board and lodging need be paid for before they can be released.

—The Board of County Commissioners issued license to retail liquor to the following applicants: Messrs. Wm. E. Barden, W. E. Bass, Russell & Bodenhamer. It was stated by the chairman, J. C. Slocumb, of the Board, he was opposed to the issuing of license and retailing of whiskey, but he only had a vote in the case of a tie; but as the other two commissioners voted in favor of license he could only enter a dissenting opinion to the public, and as the wall had been broken down, that he would now vote for all who applied for license. He thought one bar-room would do as much harm as ten, and while he held the office he did not intend to create a monopoly in the hands of any one to sell whiskey, and all who applied should have his vote for license, that the county might as well have the revenue from the trade.

Inflammatory Rheumatism is cured by P. P. P. (Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium). Physicians have been consulted, and to no purpose. As a last resort patient takes P. P. P. and gets well. Junius Morrisey.

Died, on Sunday, the 10th instant, Junius Morrisey, son of Mr. Jno. W. and Mrs. Eliza Morrisey, and aged about fifteen months. He was a bright and promising child, and the bereaved parents have the sympathy of their numerous friends in his untimely taking away.

—The following gentlemen were installed as officers of Clinton Lodge, No. 124, I. O. O. F., at Odd-Fellows' Hall, on Tuesday evening, July 5th, by District Deputy Grand Master, J. S. Bizzell, for the ensuing six months:

W. G. Rackley, N. G,
D. M. Partrick, V. G.
Jno. A. Beaman, Rec. Sec'y.
W. R. King, Fin. Sec'y.
A. J. Cooper, Warden,
Erskine Williamson, Conductor.
Julian Lewis, R. S. to N. G.
J. M. Spell, L. S. to N. G.
J. W. Powell, L. S. to V. G.
C. T. Butler, L. S. to V. G.
John R Wedding, O. G.
A. D. Williamson, I. G.
Rev. O. P. Meeks, Chaplain.
George Hargrove, R. S. S.

The Encampment.

The annual encampment of the North Carolina State Guard will be by regiments and not as a brigade. The encampment will be held on the State Grounds at Wrightsville and the camp will be know as camp Holt. The first and second Regiments will encamp from July 21st to the 29th inclusive, and the third and fourth regiments from August 4th to the 12th inclusive.

The Sampson Light Infantry, Company A Second Regiment, Capt. E. W. Kerr, commanding, will leave Clinton on the morning of the 21st instant via W. & W. R. R. Capt, Kerr expects to go into camp with not less than fifty men.

No Longer Dry.

On the first Monday in July the County Commissioners refused to grant license for the sale of whiskey in Clinton and it began to look as if the town was going to be dry for the first time in its history. Those who have been want to take an eye opener in the morning or a punch at eve, or a whiskey cocktail, or Tom and Jerry during the day, were somewhat inconvenienced. There has since been plenty of "calamity water" in Clinton, but not a drop to drink. It was all locked up and non "comeatable." The Commissioners were in special session this week and we learn that license has been granted to Messrs. W. E. Bass, W. E. Barden and Bodenhamer & Russell. This ends the dry spell, and the granting of license to other parties will probably soon follow.

Fat Men's Excursion.

The "fat men" will leave Clinton on the 8:20 a. m. train Tuesday July 26th, 1892, for a visit to the encampment. Railroad fare to Wilmington and return $2.45. Let every man in the county who weighs 200 lbs. and upwards be sure to go. It is purely a pleasure trip, and while we seek amusement for ourselves we are willing to afford a little to others by giving them the opportunity of seeing the big men from Sampson in a body. Do not fail to go if you tip the beam at 200.

A Suggestion.

(Special Correspondent.)

Mr. Editor—I do not offer to give advice to the numerous correspondents of THE CAUCASIAN, but would merely make a suggestion. I hope it will not be considered out of place. Some correspondent in each township should furnish the news of his neighborhood. That is a privilege and a duty, but care should be taken as to what is written.

Personalities that might offend, reports the truth of which is not established, private matters, and jokes without points should be avoided. A reckless correspondent is capable of doing more harm and causing more bitter feeling than a good correspondent is capable of doing good. The editor relies upon the truth of news sent him and when it is published the general public accepts the statements as true, therefore the publication of unfounded rumors is alike damaging to newspapers, correspondents and private individuals. A READER.

[We call the attention of correspondents to the above suggestion, and hope they will furnish us with the important news items of each township every week. It is well to avoid anything that might unjustly wound your neighbor's feelings, or in any way put him in a false light. —EDITOR.]

A Card.

We choose this medium to return our thanks and to express our grateful appreciation of the kindness extended to us by residents of Clinton, during the recent illness in our family.

MR. & MRS. W. R. SKINNER.

M. D. Lane, Devereaux, Ga., writes: "One summer several years ago, while railroading in Mississippi, I became badly affected with malarial blood poison that impaired my health for more than two years. Several offensive ulcers appeared on my legs, and nothing seemed to give permanent relief until I took six bottles of B. B. B., which cured me entirely."

THE TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY.

Rev. Mr. Dixon's Lecture and Sermon and Other Notes.

The Teachers' Assembly which closed last week has scored another big success, Prof. John J. Blair, Superintendent of the Winston Graded Schools, was elected President for the ensuing year. The personnel of the teachers at the Assembly this year was above the average, and every one was remarking upon the number of the pretty lady teachers present.

Rev. Thos. Dixon lectured on Saturday night. It was his noted lecture on "Back-bone." He is an earnest, dramatic orator. It is seldom that an audience gets such a treat. Mr. Dixon preached Sunday morning in the Assembly Hall. We had gotten an idea that he appeared to the best advantage on the rostrum as a lecturer, but we were happily disappointed. His sermon surpassed his lecture. His subject was the "Relation of the Church to the Social and Economic Problems of the Day." He was powerful, earnest and eloquent, He gave a heavy blow to dogmatic theology. His arraignment of the sermons that preach the "simple gospel"—that does not hit any one was crushing. He made a strong plea for a practical religion—the religion of humanity as against the religion of theology. He laid much of the blame for the present condition at the door of a false and cowardly religion.

Mr. Dixon talks so rapidly that there are very few stenographers who can report his sermons, but Miss Jenkins of Salem, who was the official stenographer for the Assembly, reported his sermon at Morehead. Mr. Dixon was surprised and delighted to find a stenographer in North Carolina who had reached such perfection and speed in short hand. She has been solicited to accept a position as teacher of the stenography in the Girl's Industrial and Training school in Greensboro.

TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY NOTES.

[Cor. Progressive Farmer.]

MOREHEAD CITY, N. C., June 30, '92

Mr. Editor—The programme of yesterday was the inter collegiate oratorical contest. Trinity, Wake Forest, David son, Guilford and Elon colleges were represented. The speeches of the young men were all good and did credit both to them and the institutions they represented. Mr. Durham, who graduated from Trinity a few days ago, won the assembly gold medal offered for the best oration. Last night the medal was presented by Hon. Marion Butler, who emphasized very strongly that part of Mr. Durham's speech in which he so forcibly and eloquently referred to the needs of the laboring classes. Mr. Butler urged the young orator to advocate and support all true measures of reform as he come in contact with them in the battle of life.

To the Encampment.

[Special Correspondent.]

Well, I was enrolled as one of the old veterans to go to the encampment at Wrightsville Sound last year, the latter part of July, '91. It was an enjoyable trip to me, and I believe it was to most of the old boys, particularly so to our clever Dr. R. H. Holliday, who was so enthusiastic on the occasion that he could not sleep at night, there was not much sleep for any of us for the first night or two, we had so much to talk about—telling of incidents of the war, &c. It was a very pleasant time indeed. We had met our brothers in arms long since separated, and that we were once more mingling with the bravest of the brave. The day before we decamped we were visited by the ladies and good citizens of Wilmington, who brought down every refreshment heart could desire; and Gen. Matt. Ramson's eulogies on Gen. Lee, and his army, "making them the equal of the great Napoleon and his army, was truly grand and pleasing to listen to."

Well, I was on the sea-shore now, and oh, how magnificent! how grand! It almost made me forget my sins, and the dull cares of the world, and after gazing and thinking awhile these thoughts came into my mind:

Roll on, thou deep and dark blue ocean, roll!
Time bath not thy dark beauty spoiled,
Nor thy placid bosom changed.

It look just like it did when I first arrived upon its shores as a young soldier boy, at the outbreaking of the war, and I reckon it was just the same a hundred years before that, never ceasing, never changing.

I stopped in Wilmington a few days on my way back, and while there I visited the cemeteries, in company with my brother, (who lives in the place) both city and national. We first went to the city cemetery, there on a marble pillow, some ten or twelve feet high, stood a bronze statue of a soldier representing the Confederate soldier in full uniform, with musket in hand, and the letters C. S. on the cartridge box, standing at parade rest, and which seemed to say—

"Step lightly stranger, the Confederate heroes lie sleeping here, While I o'er them my constant vigils keep!"

This scene was very impressive, and it was all fixed up by the good people of Wilmington. W. A. PETERSON.

Rain! Rain!! Rain?!!

Grass is growing, farmers complaining, the river is rising, consequently the fish will have a rest time and so will the bait. No more digging of "yeth worms" by fire light now Whooping cough and measles abroad the land. Doctors are in demand. They have to ride day and night.

To the annual picnic at the White Lake on the 15th of July, this year, "everybody and all the children" are invited to come and bring their baskets full of something to eat. The average young man is looking forward to it, expecting to have a good time with his best girl. There will be a good string band on hand that day and all that wish to dance as much as they please. Others can sail on the lake, or go bathing: but as for your correspondent he is going to get as near the lemonade stand as possible and take it cool.

From the signs that I see in my travels there is going to be some pairing off among the young folks this fall. Groves are being trimmed up, lumber sawed, quilt calico cut into squares and stars. I am going to set my mouth cake fashion anyway. More anon. BETA.

THE CAUCASIAN.

CLINTON, N. C.,—JULY 14, 1892.

A CORRECT COPY.

Some persons and newspapers have been charging that the St. Louis demands of the Alliance contained a "Soldier's plank, and other things that would be objectionable to many people. They have tried to prejudice people against the Alliance by such misrepresentations. The following is a correct and official copy of the St. Louis Demands:

PLATFORM.

FINANCE.

First—We demand a national Currency, safe, sound and flexible, issued by the general government only, a full legal tender for all debts, public and private, and that without the use of banking corporations a just, equitable and efficient means of distribution direct to the people at a tax not to exceed 2 per cent, be provided, as set forth in the sub-treasury plan of the Farmers' Alliance, or some better system; also, be payments in discharge of its obligations for public improvements.

a. We demand free and unlimited coinage of silver.

b We demand that the amount of circulating medium be speedily increased to not less than $50 per capita.

c. We demand a gradual income tax.

d. We believe that the money of the country should be kept as much as possible in the hands of the people, and hence we demand all National and State revenue shall be limited to the necessary expenses of the Government economically and honestly administered.

e. We demand that postal savings banks be established by the Government for the safe deposit of the earnigs of the people and to facilitate exchange.

LAND.

Second—The land, including all the natural resources of wealth, is the heritage of the people and should not be monopolized for speculative purposes, ond alien ownership of land should be prohibited. All land now held by railroads and other corporations in excess of their actual needs, and all lands now owned by aliens, should be reclaimed by the Government and held for actual settlers only.

TRANSPORTATION.

Third—Transportation being a means of exchange and a public necessity, the Government should own and operate the railroads in the interest of the people.

a. The telegraph and telephone, like the post office system, being a necessity for transmission of news, should be owned and operated by the Government in the interest of the people.

The above is certified to by the whole North Carolina delegates to the St. Louis Convention. The delegates were as follows: Marion Butler, J. F. Brinson, Rev. J. C. Hoover, W. C. Wilcox, E. C. Beddingfield, P. H. Massey, J. F. Johnson, A. C. Shuford, H. M. Kent, Rev. J. C. Brown.

There are people who wish to oppose the Alliance and not being able to do so fairly or meet its speakers in argument, stoop to misrepresent and abuse.

ONE THING OR ANOTHER.

A certain amount of crying is believed to be necessary, or at any rate beneficial to small children, and they act generally as if they were not disposed to lose any of this exercise.

Little Tommy sat on the floor one day, weeping long and bitterly. All at once he stopped.

"Mamma," said he trembling, "wh-what was I crying about?" His mother smiled. "Because I would not let you take the bronze horse off the mantel to play with, I believe," she said.

"Boo-hoo hoo-hoo!" Tommy began to cry again harder than ever, but presently he got it:

"No—'twant that. I'm glad—it was 'cause you would 't—let me go out—in the cold—but I'm goin' to cry about the horse now—boo-hoo-hoo!"—Youth's Companion.

Deafness Can't Be Cured

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucus surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that we can not cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

SOUTH CLINTON.

Died, at his home, on May 14, Mr. Buriel Blackman, aged 86. He had lived a consistent member of the Baptist church for fifty years. The funeral was preached by Rev. J. W. Bell.

X.

MINGO.

Protracted meetings will begin at Mt. Elam Baptist church on Friday before the third Sunday in July. It will be conducted by Revs. Messrs. Fisher and West.

Hog cholera is raging in this section and many of our farmers have sustained heavy losses of hogs in the past few weeks.

HONEYCUTTS.

Rev. F. M. Royal, recently of Louisville Theological Seminary, now located at Reidsville, N. C., is at home on a visit to his father, Prof. Isham Royal.

Rev. M. Royal addressed the the Sunday school, last Sunday, on Missions. The children became so interested that they pledged to give one cent a month to Foreign Missions. Mr. Royal will be home about a month.

PINEY GROVE.

Mr. Editor—As our section has not been reported in sometime I will give you a few "jots."

We are having lots of rain this week.

Most of our farmers are getting through their crops.

Crops are not so good in this section as others report.

Mr. T. H. Sutton opened a school at Oakdale Academy with an enrollment of twenty-eight students on the 4th instant.

Miss Lizzie Hatcher is visiting friends and relatives in Cumberland this week. We wish her a pleasant stay.

Miss Mary R. King is spending the week in Clinton with Miss Hattie King.

At the absence of Rev. J. O. Tew, at Poplar Grove; on Sunday, the 3d instant, Rev. Mr. Usrey, of the Newton Grove circuit, filled his appointment.

We learn that a young lady of Hall's township has applied for the expert "hawk-killer," and that she gets as a premium with same a "hatcher." She is going into the poultry business extentensively.

What has become of "Plug"? I have seen nothing of him of late, I think he must have been "left" too.

I would say to the young man who called on his girl recently and got his hand mashed under the chair to mind where he puts his hand. Keep your hands out from under the rockers, young man.

Let me hear from "Plug" again. CROSS-EYED SAM.

TAYLOR'S BRIDGE.

Dr. Moseley is still improving.

The Rev. C. F. Hopper, the new pastor at Mt. Gilead, formerly of Shelby, N. C., is a young man who richly deserves the love and praise he elicits from our people as a preacher.

Mr. Ivey M. Powell's many friends here and in Duplin, will be glad to hear that he is well and likes his new home—Cordele, Ga.

Cordele now has several natives of this township whom we have reluctantly given up. We trust that some bird or some fairy, or some good spirit, will put it in the hearts of these prodigals to return some day.

A single vertebra from the spine of some pre-historic monster was excavated sometime since from a marl deposit on the premises of Mr. G. I. Smith that doubtless would interest the student of Zoology. The bone is evidently from the dorsal region of the column, and measures 14 inches round; 4½ inches in diameter and three inches in length.

Miss Berta Marshburn, one of Sampson's best girls, has returned from Duplin, where she has been visiting Miss Eva Boon.

Mr. Clem R. Knowles, of Adel, Georgia, is spending a month with relatives and friends here. Clem is a Taylor's Bridge boy, and we all glad to have him with us again. J. O M.

DISMAL.

While our correspondents are writing of the many good things of Dismal, we wonder why they do not say that the reform movement here is gaining ground ever day. Our people are alive to the demands and calls of the issues of the day and propose stying in line.

The people of Chance and many visitors were addressed on June 26th by Mr. Jno. A. Oates, on the subject of Sabbath-school work. It was quite a success.

Miss Bessie Sicker is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Williams.

MOLET.

LISBON.

There is a negro woman in this township over forty years age and she attended the public school last winter. Does the school law not prohibit such?

A darkey was recently run over by a wagon in this vicinity and sustained severe injuries which have resulted in peritonitis. He is in destitute circumstances and needs medical attention.

Dr. H. C. Herring, of Concord, is spending some time with his mother. He ranks among the most skill dentists of the State.

Most of our farmers have finished plowing corn.

Balaam Gregory, an old darkey, deposited all his savings in the Clinton Bank, and is now very much distressed because he can't get his money to pay a debt against his home, which is past due. His condition is pitable, and he is anxious to know when the bank can return his deposit.

SUNDAY READING.

Educate men without religion, and you make them but clever devils.—Duke of Wellington.

The tongue of a fool is the key of his counsel, which in a wise man, wisdom hath in keeping.—Socrates.

A little philosophy inclineth men's minds to atheism; but depth in philosophy brings men's minds to religion.—Lord Bacon.

He is happy whose circumstances suit his temper; but he is more excellent who can suit his temper to any circumstance.—Hume.

As long as God lives, nothing that happens to the man who is trusting in Him can be a misfortune.—Ram's Horn.

Good fruit, though it does not constitute the goodness of the tree, is necessary to demonstrate that it is good.—Dr. Bunting.

The Scriptures teach us the best way of living, the noblest way of suffering, and the most comfortable way of dying.—Flavet.

Contentment is a pearl o great price, and whosoever pro cures it at the expense of ten thousand desires, makes a wise and happy purchase.—Balgay.

If men realized that they are disclosing themselves by what they say about others, they would, perhaps, be more charitable in their expressed judgments of those about them.—Sunday-School Times.

Prayer pulls the rope below and the great bell rings above in the ear of God. Some scarcely stir the bell for they pray so languidly; others give an occasional pluck at the rope; but he who wins with heaven, is the man who grasps the rope boldly, and pulls continuously with all his might.—Spurgeon.

Satan rules all men that are in his kingdom. Some he rules through lust. Some he rules through covetousness. Some he rules through appetite. Some he rules by their temper, but he rules them. And none will seek to be delivered until they get their eyes open and see that they have been taken captive.—Moody.

There can be no truer description of a disciple of Jesus than he who busies himself in helping his fellowmen. No one need be careful as to the line of work that opens before him, for Christ's work is of equal honor and brings equal benefit to the soul that engages in it. We miss the largest blessing of this life by failing to do little things, or those which seem of least importance.—Dr. Fry.

God washes the eyes by tears until they can behold the otherwise invisible land where tears shall come no more. O, Love! O, Affliction! Ye are the guides that show us the way through the great airy space where our loved ones walked; and as hounds easily follow the scent before the dew be risen, so God teaches us, while our sorrow is tear-wet to follow on and find our dear ones in heaven.—Beecher.

If any man's sorrows need our sympathy, his bodily or spiritual wants our help, let us think no more of asking whether he belongs to our country or family, our party or church, than if we saw him stretching out his hands from the window of a burning house, or found him, like the object of the Samaritan's kindness, wallowing in a pool of blood. Thus Christ loved us; and thus he teaches us to love one another.—Gutherie.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada A. Hard, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at Dr. R. H. Holliday's drugstore, Clinton, N. C.; and at J. R. DUPLIN COUNTY.

THE CAUCASIAN was adopted as the official Organ of the Duplin County Alliance at the January meeting of 1891.

JOFORD, N. C., July 2d, '92.

At a regular meeting of Rockfish Alliance, No. 846, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the coming election we will calmly, in nonpartizan spirit, consider the platform of each of the candidates for President, and will cast our votes and use our influence to secure the election of the one that indorses the demands, as put forth by the National Alliance at Ocala, and the demands of the great labor conference at St. Louis, regardless of former resolutions to any political party.

Resolved further, That we will cast our votes for men who will pledge themselves to work for, and use their influence to have the demands of the Alliance enacted into laws, especially for candidates for the lawmaking departments, both State and National.

Resolved, That copies of these be sent to The Progressive Farmer and THE CAUCASIAN for publication.

C. C. OWEN, Secretary.

FASHION NOTES.

Blue and green are colors now used in combination.

Wide sashes of black water ribbon are in demand.

White bunting is a favorite material for house dresses.

Black silk ulsters are shown for dust cloaks for traveling.

Gloves have very long cuffs. Some off them are very elaborately embroidered in gold, jet steel.

Surah silk is not the favorate it was of old. It does not wear as well as others owing to the stiffness in it.

Deep Spanish fringes in black silk cord, having a lattice work pattern, are seen on light silks, silks, over which black is used.

The shoes for evening wear, at present, almost always match the toilet, and the material made use of in the gown is often seen in them.

In novelties in dress fabrics it is impossible to escape from patterned materials. Every textile fabric shows some device or other. The most "Frenchy" combine stripes and brocade figures.

The diversity in round hats and bonne's is more displayed in the trimming than in the shapes, which have not materially changed. In the hat the brims are narrow and the crowns very small.

A great novelty is shown in chiffon scarfs, with fringed and satin striped ends and striped edges, which are draped around the hat, either knotted in a full bow or the ends left hanging in the back.

The long street skirts are going out of fashion, and in their place is a prettily shaped round skirt, which just escapes the ground. Demi-trains are for calling and house wear, and long trains appear only on very elaborate occasions.

The very latest Parisan fancy is the Greek bonnet. It is made of jet, and in front is a jet moon. Instead of the conventional ribbon ties are three strings of jet beans, fastened on either side by a crescent, and finished at the back with a mauve and aigrette six inches high.

"My darling," she murmured, you know that I love you. Is this not enough for the present? Be assured that I will set a day for our wedding as soon as it is possible."

"That's all right, Miranda," doggedly replied the young man, "but I hope you will remember that I've got to be married in this suit, and it won't last forever." —Clothier and Furnisher.

Has that lady who called on your mother gone yet?

No, and she won't go for another hour.

How do you know?

Because she has just got up from her chair and said. "Well, I must go—good bye.—New York Press.

"We should like an article from your pen, reverend sir, as you are the pastor of our most fashionable church."

"Upon what subject?"

"Anything that has come under your observation."

"Good. I will write you an essay upon bonnets"—Epoch.

Friend—So you have learned French?

Miss Struckile—Yes, indeed. I studied it in Paris. We went to a French performance and enjoyed it thoroughly.

Was it comedy?

No; pantomine.—Good News.

CURES SCROFULA

Mrs. E. J. Rowell, Medford, Mass., says her mother has been cured of Scrofula by the use of four bottles of S.S.S. after having had much other treatment, and being reduced to quite a low condition of health, as it was thought she could not live.

S.S.S. Cured my little boy of hereditary scrofula which appeared all over his face. For a year I had given up all hope of his recovery, when finally I was induced to use S.S.S. A few bottles cured him, and no symptoms of the disease remain.
